

Karl,

We need to focus on Intelligence Day at Fort Huachuca scheduled for 26 June. ACSI is arranging. Mr. Taylor said General Walters told him he would participate in the Ft Huachuca one on the 26th since he would be there for the NMIA meeting. This was several weeks ago when Taylor saw the General at a USIB Meeting. I received a call from Pat Baxter in Taylor's office. She related the above and asked for confirmation of his attendance. I asked the General and he said, "Yes," since he will be there.

I told Miss Baxter that General Walters could not possibly arrive Ft Huachuca until 1130 on the 26th and she said that would be alright. They could arrange the schedule around his presentation. She is arranging for the airplane but I told her General Walters would not be going or returning on it. Mr. Taylor will take any material he will need for his presentation. They can handle up to SI-TK.

They will plan to have General Walters give his presentation first in the afternoon - around 1310. He can take Q & A immediately afterward so that he can be free to go off to the NMIA reception at 1630. Presentation should be about half an hour.

FORT BLISS

NOTE: According to General Aaron's Executive Assistant, Mr. Taylor (11-74644), the session at Fort Leavenworth is the most important. He also said there will be a session at the Army War College at Carlisle Barracks, Pennsylvania.

In an earlier conversation with Jenonne Walker, Mr. Taylor had indicated that the panel would consist of Dr. Hall, General Graham, General Aaron and, hopefully, Mr. Colby. Mr. Taylor said that if Mr. Colby were unable to attend, they hoped General Walters could; and, if not either of them, General Wilson.
